

Reverend Yolanda Ferguson

Reverend Yolanda Ferguson serves as the Women's Ministry President and the Director of Christian Ministries at 15 th Street Church of God. She has the spiritual gifts of Administration, Leadership and Service. As the Director of Christian ministries her focus is serving ministry leaders, believing that healthy leaders can build a healthy church. She continues to strive for the mastery of her calling and has earned both bachelor and master degrees in Organizational Communication from Queens University in Charlotte, NC. She earned her Exhorter's certification followed by her license ordained credentials from the Church of God. She was the first African-American to serve on the WNC Women's Ministry board.

She continued her education by taking coaching courses that would aid in ministry followed by receiving a master's in Christian Leadership from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (2012), Charlotte campus. Yolanda recently received, under Paradigm 360 Coaching, a Growth Coach certification (2016). She works full-time at the Federal Reserve Bank and as an adjunct professor, teaching Small Group Communication at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Yolanda serves alongside her husband, Bishop Wade Ferguson. She met and fell in love with him at North Carolina Central University. Married over 31 years, from this union they have two sons, two grandsons and a beautiful granddaughter.

Yolanda's desire is to be a strong woman of prayer. After serving alongside her husband she realizes that everything in ministry must be bathed in prayer. Lady Ferguson's anchor scripture is Jeremiah 33:3 (Msg), "Call to me and I will answer you. I'll tell you marvelous and wondrous things that you could never figure out on your own."
