

Bishop Woody Jarrett was born in Jamaica and grew up in Brooklyn, New York. He is an ordained bishop in the Church of God, Cleveland, Tennessee. Before moving to Waycross, Georgia (GA), Bishop Jarrett served as the Lead Pastor, Sunset Family Worship Center, Eastman, GA. He was previously the administrative and executive pastor for Cornerstone Church of God in Columbus, GA. He has also held assistant pastor positions in several locations: Morningside Church of God in Columbus, GA; Lakedale Church of God in Fayetteville, North Carolina; Biggs Field Chapel in Fort Bliss, Texas; Servicemen Christian Center in Seoul, South Korea. Bishop Jarrett served our nation for twenty-four years in a series of demanding positions and retired from the United States Army in 2008 with the rank of Command Sergeant Major. He then worked as an Army Ombudsman for the Warrior Transition Battalion in Fort Benning, Georgia for five years.

Bishop Jarrett holds a Master of Divinity Degree, with a concentration in Theological Studies, from the Pentecostal Theological Seminary, Cleveland, TN. He also earned a Master of Science Degree in Health Services Community Health from Independence University, Salt Lake City, UT. Bishop Jarrett is an Associate Professor of Theology & Biblical Studies for Life Christian University, Tampa, Florida. He is a 2017 graduate of the Executive Leadership Program.

Bishop Jarrett serves as the District Overseer for the Waycross District, South Georgia. He was also elected to the South Georgia State Council for the 2018-2020 church year. Bishop Jarrett is married to Jennifer, “the wife of his youth”. The Jarrett quiver consists of four remarkable young adults: Alexis, Chelsea, Caleb Joshua (CJ), and Kayla. They are all college graduates and engaged in the ministry and the market place.